Course description: COM4022—Health Communication is a three-credit, 6000 word Gordon Rule course. This course is primarily for those students with a strong interest in health related issues. We will cover such topics as the history and current issues in health communication. We will then examine the roles of patients and caregivers, social and cultural issues, communication in health organizations and issues in public health (media, crisis, policy reform, and health promotion).

Course Texts
Communicating About Health: Current Issues and Perspectives, by Athena du Pre. 4th Edition. Oxford University Press. The Immortal Life of HErietta Lacks, by Rebecca Skloot. Copyright 2010. Published by Crown Publishers, a division of Random House, Inc. These texts are available at most bookstores serving the UF Community and online. You are responsible for having access to these texts by Sunday, August 28, 2016 in order to complete assignments and quizzes. There will be NO extensions on quizzes or assignments if you do not have your texts by this date.

Course requirements
Internet Access and your Gatorlink Email Address that you should check on a regular basis. (For any questions on this policy, please see the Computer Requirements as discussed under the General Requirements in the University catalog or UF Computer and Software Requirements on the web.), access to the Internet, and MS Word (or other word processing software that is compatible with MS Word).

Learning Objectives
This course is designed to help you understand how the health industry operates and what role you might play in it. To really understand any component of health care, you must understand how the components work together and what factors have shaped (and continue to shape) the field.
To accomplish this we will develop the ability to:

- Describe the history of medicine and health care
- Knowledgeably discuss current issues in health care
- Analyze patient-caregiver communication
- Engage in informed dialogue about ethical issues in health communication
- Describe patients' and caregivers' perspectives
- Describe cultural viewpoints about health
- Identify and discuss the types of diversity among patients and caregivers
- Define the role of social support in maintaining health and coping with illness
- Analyze the advantages and challenges of communicating about health via mobile devices, computers, and other technology
- Analyze and describe organizational issues in health communication (leadership, public relations, marketing, human resources, crisis management, and so on)
- Identify media images about health and their influence on communication
- Comment knowledgeably on health crisis communication and health care reform options
- Identify the key steps in planning, implementing, and assessing health promotion campaigns

COURSE POLICIES

ASSIGNMENT SUBMISSION: Unless otherwise indicated, assignments should be submitted through the course website by 11:59 p.m. on Sunday night. Do not wait until the last minute to turn in an assignment because of the possibility of technical difficulties.

LATE POLICY: Assignments not turned in on the due date are considered late. There is a one week (7 calendar days) grace period to turn in late assignments for partial credit, after which, your work will not be accepted and you will receive a zero for that assignment. The penalty for late assignments turned in during the grace period is as follows:

- Minus 1 point per day for assignments up to 30 points.
- Minus 2 points per day for assignments from 31-100 points.
- Minus 3 points per day for assignments from 101 – 200 points.

This late policy does not apply to Chapter Quizzes. There is no grace period nor is there any make-up policy for Chapter Quizzes. If you miss a Chapter Quiz, you will receive a zero for that assignment.

THREE BEFORE ME RULE: Due to the increasing enrollments in communication courses, it is important to adhere to the "Three Before Me Rule." Basically, the "Three Before Me Rule" requires that you try finding the answer on your own by searching in at least three (3) different places (re-read the module, re-read the chapter, check the course schedule, re-read the syllabus, ask your fellow classmates, etc.) before approaching me with your question. E-mail messages must start with "I adhered to the “Three 3
Before Me Rule” by…" and then documenting the three ways in which you tried to locate the answer. You can e-mail me via eLearning or directly to dnagy@ufl.edu.

UF POLICIES

ACCOMMODATIONS: University Policy on Accommodating Students with Disabilities: Students requesting accommodation for disabilities must first register with the Dean of Students Office (http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/). The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the instructor when requesting accommodation. You must submit this documentation prior to submitting assignments or taking the quizzes or exams. Accommodations are not retroactive; therefore, students should contact the office as soon as possible in the term for which they are seeking accommodations.

ACADEMIC HONOR CODE: Students are expected to uphold the Academic Honor Code published in the Undergraduate Catalog (http://www.registrar.ufl.edu/catalog/policies/students.html). Please become familiar with the policies of the Honor Code (http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/honorcodes/honorcode.php) as all violations will be reported to the Dean of Students Office. Research misconduct, such as plagiarism or cheating, will result in an automatic failing grade for the assignment.

NETIQUETTE: All members of the class are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all email messages, threaded discussions, and chats. All members are expected to follow these guidelines: http://teach.ufl.edu/wp-content/uploads/2012/08/NetiquetteGuideforOnlineCourses.pdf.

Getting Help

For issues with technical difficulties for E-learning in Canvas, please contact the UF Help Desk at:
- Learning-support@ufl.edu
- (352) 392-HELP - select option 2
- https://lss.at.ufl.edu/help.shtml

Any requests for make-ups due to technical issues MUST be accompanied by the ticket number received from LSS when the problem was reported to them. The ticket number will document the time and date of the problem. You MUST e-mail your instructor within 24 hours of the technical difficulty if you wish to request a make-up.

Other resources are available at http://www.distance.ufl.edu/getting-help such as:
- Counseling and Wellness resources
- Disability resources
- Resources for handling student concerns and complaints
- Library Help Desk support
Any questions regarding the planning, administering and teaching of COM 4022 should be discussed with me individually. As needed, questions can be discussed further with Dr. Kellie W. Roberts, Director, Dial Center for Written & Oral Communication. Her office is located in Rolfs Hall, 402. For procedural details, please refer to the formal student complaint process http://www.distance.ufl.edu/student-complaint-process at UF’s Distance Learning website.
