Course overview/Purpose of the course

LIS2001 Introduction to Library and Internet Research is a one-credit course in which you learn how to conduct solid, reliable library research that will help you in every class you take at UF. You will learn the critical thinking skills needed to find, evaluate, and use relevant scholarly resources in a variety of disciplines. This dynamic, hands-on course will engage you with creative thinking and media production tools as you explore the social responsibilities of using information in the digital age.

Course Objectives

By the end of this course, students will be able to:

Determine the nature and extent of the information needed

- Understand what it means to be "information literate"
- Perform the research process

Access needed information effectively and efficiently

- Locate library resources
- Build search strategies and use keywords
- Navigate research databases

Evaluate information and its sources and incorporate selected information into existing knowledge bases and value systems

- Debate information ethics
- Evaluate sources critically

Use information to accomplish a specific purpose

- Cite sources appropriately
- Write literature reviews and abstracts
- Communicate research

Understand the economic, legal, and social issues surrounding the use of information

- Understand plagiarism and copyright
- Use non-textual information resources
- Understand participation in information as choice

Instructional methods

- Homework assignments and literacy labs will consist of a variety of instructions, file formats, and tasks. Follow the instructions carefully found within each module. Assignments should be submitted via the course website.
- The Midterm Exam will consist of up to ten questions that will require you to use skills acquired in the course in order to come up with the correct answer. The time limit will be one hour.

COURSE POLICIES

ATTENDANCE Attendance is not graded as class meets asynchronously.

LATE ASSIGNMENTS There will be NO LATE assignments or make-up exams without a University-approved excuse. Assignments will NOT be accepted late due to technical difficulties. TECHNICAL DIFFICULTIES CAN BE AVOIDED BY COMPLETING ASSIGNMENTS EARLY.

If Sakai is “down,” try again later. Sakai is never down for very long.

ASSIGNMENT SUBMISSION Unless otherwise indicated, assignments should be submitted through the course website by 11:55PM on Friday of each week. As class meets asynchronously, it is the student’s responsibility to remember to turn in assignments each week. Do not wait until the last minute to turn in an assignment because of the possibility of technical difficulties. For the most part, assignment instructions will be found under “Assignments” on the course website.

UF POLICIES

ACCOMMODATIONS University Policy on Accommodating Students with Disabilities: Students requesting accommodation for disabilities must first register with the Dean of Students Office (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/>). The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the instructor when requesting accommodation. You must submit this documentation prior to submitting assignments or taking the quizzes or exams. Accommodations are not retroactive; therefore, students should contact the office as soon as possible in the term for which they are seeking accommodations. Note: Exams in this course are open book/open notes/open internet and students will have a minimum of 3 days to complete the exams.

ACADEMIC HONOR CODE Students are expected to uphold the Academic Honor Code published in the Undergraduate Catalog (<http://www.registrar.ufl.edu/catalog/policies/students.html>). Please become familiar with the policies of the Honor Code (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/honorcodes/honorcode.php>) as all violations will be reported to the Dean of Students Office. Research misconduct, such as plagiarism or cheating, will result in an automatic failing grade for the assignment.

NETIQUETTE All members of the class are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all email messages, threaded discussions, and chats. All members are expected to follow these guidelines: <http://teach.ufl.edu/wp-content/uploads/2012/08/NetiquetteGuideforOnlineCourses.pdf>.

Getting Help

For issues with technical difficulties for E-learning in Sakai, please contact the UF Help Desk at:

- Learning-support@ufl.edu
- (352) 392-HELP - select option 2
- <https://lss.at.ufl.edu/help.shtml>

Any requests for make-ups due to technical issues MUST be accompanied by the ticket number received from LSS when the problem was reported to them. The ticket number will document the time and date of the problem. You MUST e-mail your instructor within 24 hours of the technical difficulty if you wish to request a make-up.

Other resources are available at <http://www.distance.ufl.edu/getting-help> for:

- Counseling and Wellness resources
- Disability resources
- Resources for handling student concerns and complaints
- Library Help Desk support

Should you have any complaints with your experience in this course please visit <http://www.distance.ufl.edu/student-complaints> to submit a complaint.
